WOMEN'S CONFERENCE TICKETS AVAILABLE

Tickets are now on sale for the third bi-annual Christian Women of the Basin Conference scheduled Friday and Saturday, March 2-3, 2012. The conference will be held at Bible Baptist Church Auditorium, 4849 S. 6th Street, Klamath Falls. Friday's opening session is 7pm-9pm. Saturday session is 9:30am-2:30pm. Tickets are $40 for both sessions and include nibbles and boxed lunch on Saturday. Doors open one hour prior.

Keynote speaker for the event is Christine Wrytzen, host of the nationally syndicated radio program Daughters of Promise, heard daily on many hundred stations. She is also a recording artist and author.

Frances Drost, concert artist, songwriter and worship leader will provide music. Frances is also founder of Musical Creations, writing personal songs requested by individuals as tribute and encouragement to loved ones.

Christian Women of the Basin is a cooperative effort of women's ministry leaders from various local churches. Cooperatively they are able to bring quality speakers to Klamath Falls so local women do not have to travel long distances at great expense to attend a Christian conference that encourages their faith. More than 600 women from 50 different churches throughout the area attended the group's second conference in 2010.

Tickets can be purchased at Bible Baptist Ministries Auditorium office, 4849 S. 6th Street; For His Glory Gifts, S. 6th Street across from Les Schwab; Shaw Stationary, Main St; Merits Home Center at the corner of S. 6th Street and Owens or online at www.ChristianWomenoftheBasin.org.
